

Weekly Writing Assignment #3

One of our essential questions is about leadership. It asks what makes successful leadership and what, by contrast, does not? Using textual evidence from Antigone, you will evaluate Creon's leadership – is it successful? Why or why not?

YOUR JOB:

- Write an essay of 1-1.5 pages about Creon's leadership, and evaluate its effectiveness.
- This means you will have to articulate what makes effective leadership and measure Creon's actions and beliefs against that standard.

PARAMETERS:

- For rubric, see your Antigone packets
- Due Friday Mar. 6th on Turnitin – hard copy in class appreciated
- Times New Roman 12 point font
- Double spaced
- Writing goal(s) at the top

ORGANIZER on the back for your use ☺

This set of questions should help guide your thinking, and arrange your essay in a logical order. You will still need to put in a hook, several transitions, and break it into paragraphs.

What makes successful leadership?
How can you characterize Creon's leadership USING EVIDENCE FROM THE TEXT?
Based on that evidence, what are Creon's core BELIEFS that inform his leadership?
Based on that evidence, is he successful?
What can your reader take away from what you've said?
